Please read the following articles of the MALPA statutes carefully. The full statutes are available at malpa.org/statutes. If you have any questions, contact us at contact@malpa.org.

Article 4 — Membership

a) Membership of the Association is open to citizen of Mauritius holders or past holders of a professional pilot's license or in the case of non-citizen of Mauritius, currently or having been employed by a person or company actively operating in Mauritius and flying within or based in Mauritius holding a work permit.

b) The entrance fee shall be one thousand rupees (Rs. 1,000), and the monthly contribution six hundred rupees (Rs. 600). The contribution is payable at the beginning of each month.

c) Members shall give to the Secretary their precise residential address and place of employment.

d) Applications for membership shall be made to the Secretary on the prescribed form, and accompanied by the admission fee and amount of the subscription for the time being in force. All applications are accepted or rejected by the Managing Committee.

e) With a view to promoting the advancement of the Association, selected individuals who are not qualified to be members of the Association may be admitted by the executive committee as honorary members of the Association. An honorary member shall not have the right to vote but may enjoy certain other rights of membership.

f) The signature on the application form is deemed to be an undertaking by the applicant to be bound by the rules of the Association then in force.

g) An up-to-date list of the members shall be maintained at the headquarters by the Secretary and shall be available for inspection by any member of the Association who requests it.

h) A member of the Association may be subject to suspension or expulsion from the Association:

1. when he ceases to be qualified for membership as per paragraph 4 (a) of these rules;
2. when his arrears of subscription exceed four months;
3. when, in the opinion of the Managing Committee members his conduct has proved detrimental to the best interests of the Association.

i) A member may appeal against suspension or expulsion to a Special General Meeting of the Association.

Article 6 — Resignations

Any member may resign by giving the Secretary written notice of his intention, provided that such resignation shall not exempt him from any unpaid payment of outstanding subscription or other financial obligations to the Association.
